Mean refer to the order of January 1900.

In the report of G. S. Regiment all that it lays down
is that an officer
should get an increase of payance <sup>every</sup> three years. If he continues in service for that period he seems to be entitled to get that increase without any further order of G.O.
Is the G.O. or the C.C. competent to withhold the increase or not grant it except by a special report &
by a special order of G.O. I shall be glad to know the military opinion.

Submitted to His Highness.

Mr Krishna Rao the late Regimental Surgeon of the L. Y.
 Regiment claims increase of pay for seven months at the rate of fifty rupees.
 On this point the Military Board said in its report "On 4th January 1903 he became entitled to a further increase of Rs. fifty, but when he applied for the same the C. C. recommended him for retirement." On a previous occasion I remarked was of opinion that officers should be recommended for their increase directly they had put in <sup>sewing</sup> qualifications.
 Again in his note of 1st April 03 he said "He is entitled to the increase of pay in accordance with para I part II of the order above quoted."

It ~~seems~~ Mr Krishna Rao was recommended for retirement there was an unfavourable report of him - and the question now to be decided is simply one of construction. If the order is deemed to lay down only the condition of the period of service I think Mr Justice Laurie is entitled to put the answer for 7 months - In the ~~air service~~ rules for ~~the~~ the civil service stands the service is qualified by the word approved and no such qualifying word is used in the order in question - The Military Appellate also points out that there will be no cases of this sort in future - The case is one which under the rules requires the orders of His Majesty.

I agree with the Chief Commandant that the Regimentdar has been treated with sufficient liberality, & that there is no need
